Testimonials

The Pulse of Boston, Boston's premier party and dance band, got the crowd moving and shaking at the Mike Lowell Foundation Casino Night benefit, Sunday night, Aug 30th. The House of Blues was turned into a Las Vegas casino for the night, with gaming tables contributed by Mohegan Sun. Red Sox players Mike Lowell, David Ortiz, Jason Varitek were spotted in the crowd. The band broke into a pulsating version of Michael Jackson's "Billie Jean," a fitting tribute to the King of Pop. The dance floor was soon full and gyrating, and when singer Pedro Rivera called out from the stage to ask if the crowd was having fun, hands went up and bodies twirled. The audience was obviously enjoying themselves, as the nine piece band brought the energy level higher and higher. The Pulse of Boston played great renditions of popular dance classics, hip-hop, Latin music and Motown, including a scorching version of Aretha Franklin's "RESPECT." They are "The Best" local band we have seen in years and proved it. - Boston Music Examiner -

We LOVED having The Pulse of Boston play at the Picnic In The Park at Fenway this year! And we would love to promote your great band in some way. WE HIGHLY RECOMMEND The Pulse of Boston. THANK YOU AGAIN for your generous musical donation – it was a great Picnic -- and we are happy to recommend you to any and all so consider making us a reference!

Meg Vaillancourt - Exec. Dir., Red Sox Foundation - Sr. VP, Boston Red Sox -

The Pulse of Boston was awesome! We've gotten nothing but rave reviews about the band from many Fenway Park - Picnic in the Park attendees.

We can't thank you enough for your support of the event and the Red Sox Foundation.

Gena Borson - Boston Red Sox Foundation

This band is amazing!! Everyone loved them at our wedding and several of our friends have already signed them up. They are an 8-person band with a female lead singer and horn players - and do everything from motown classics to hip-hop. They were professional to work with and great in every way.

wedgirl16 - MarthaStewart.com

The most fun, dynamic, entertaining band ever. We could get around to any tables to talk to people because everyone was dancing all night. I have never seen so many people up and dancing from beginning to end at a wedding. It was a blast. I only wish I had another occasion to hire them for.

The annual Casino Royale event to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, sponsored in part by the Boston Bruins Foundation, was held. The event included hors d'oeuvres, live music by The Pulse of Boston, and a silent auction offering goods such as weekend getaways and Celtics tickets — and, of course, Vegas-style gambling. The event helped to fund research and clinical trials to help find a cure for the disease, which affects 30,000 children and adults in the U.S. The Pulse Of Boston had hundreds of event goers partying and dancing all night and left the participants calling for more. This band definitely helped the event to be a huge success. Thank s to The Pulse Of Boston

"From Jazz, Motown, R&B, Standards, Ceremonial, and whatever else you can think of if you're looking for a band that can do it all, this is the band for you"
- Stu Taylor, Business 1060, WBIX-AM/Boston -

"All I can say is that there is no doubt this band has got it going on! Incredible is the only way to describe their performance. We all appreciated the fact that, without hesitation, they performed above and beyond! Anyone who has the chance check them out for yourself and you will be as pleased as we were."
- Amherst College -

"I wasn't sure what to expect because we've had bands perform in the past and some were OK. This group simply tore the roof off and kept everyone on the dance floor. It was amazing and everyone is still talking about it. All I know is that they left the people wanting more and hopefully they will perform at our next event. We all sure did Feel The Pulse!"
